

Voucher Terms

1. Appointment

You make an appointment individually on any date available. It is easier to get a date during the week. It tends to be much stronger demand at the weekend.

1.1 If you make an appointment at a weekend (Saturday and Sunday), at public holidays or at bridging days for a group with less than 5 participants Radlguide reserves the right to add other people to the tour (maximum up to 8 persons). If you are a group with 6 or more people you are on your own in any case.

1.2 If you make an appointment at weekdays except Saturday and Sunday, except public holidays and except bridging days you drive as a private group regardless of the size of your group.

2. Rescheduling an appointment

If you make an appointment and the weather forecast is bad you can reschedule the tour til 3 weekday before the tour for 40,- €. If snow is announced you can reschedule the tour without any additional costs till 3 days before the tour.

The weather forecast of the German Alpine Association is relevant: <http://www.alpenverein.de/DAV-Services/Bergwetter/Bayerische-und-Allgaeuer-Alpen/Muenchen>

Rescheduling for any other reason is not possible. If you do not appear to the tour the voucher expires.

3. Liability

The participation in the event is on the client's own risk. Minors may participate only in the company of a legal guardian.

The participants are responsible for meeting the physical requirements of the bicycle tours. The participants worry about suitable clothes. Bicycle tours will be carried out even if it is raining.

The observance of the traffic rules are in the participant's own responsibility.

4. Course and duration of tour

Deviations of the described procedure are possible for organisational reasons, but do not affect type and content of a tour and do not entitle the client to deduct the contract amount or a part of it.

The duration of the tour depends on the participants. Therefore it can be only specified as a period of time.

5. Duty to collaborate

The client and the participants of the client's group are under duty to avoid and minimize damages within the framework of legal provisions. They are obliged to report immediately complaints to the organizer.

6. Ineffectiveness of individual conditions

The ineffectiveness of individual conditions of this contract or its constituents does not interfere with the effectiveness of the remaining regulations.

7. Place of fulfillment and place of jurisdiction

Place of fulfillment and sole place of jurisdiction is Munich.
